

Strand School of the Arts – Summer Theater Workshops 2010

The Strand Theater's Summer Youth Workshop is currently seeking instructors for our 2010 program. Workshop dates are Monday through Friday July 12 – August 6, 2010 from 9:30am – 4:30pm. Our day camp for children ages 7-18 is offered in our historic theater located in Lakewood – New Jersey. Daily experiences will include rehearsals and specialized games and activities that focus on team work, movement, vocal techniques, and acting. The 4 week sessions will conclude with a showcase and performance of Disney's 101 Dalmatians KIDS.

Responsibilities include:

- Function as primary care-giver for youth ages 7-18
- Maintain a safe, respectful environment for students
- Be on site Monday through Friday from 9:30am – 4:30pm
- Assist in the design and development of rehearsal schedules and age-appropriate curriculum, attend preparatory meetings
- Communicate effectively with students, parents and other staff
- Collaborate with other instructors to develop and execute performances of Disney's 101 Dalmatians KIDS and showcase performances that will conclude the workshop sessions
- Assist in establishing goals and outcome measurements
- Perform other duties as assigned

HRS: 30/week

Compensation: Competitive

The ideal candidate is an experienced instructor/performer with specializations in vocal music, musical theater dance, and/or acting for musical theater. The vocal music instructor must also have piano proficiency. College diploma required. Applicant should love working with children, possess a positive attitude, and be able to accept supervision and direction.

Position requires sitting, standing, walking, reaching, twisting, turning, kneeling, bending, squatting, and stooping in the performance of daily activities. The position requires near and far vision in reading and viewing productions. Hearing is required to manage sound systems and to communicate with others. Need to lift, drag, and push materials weighing up to 100 pounds may also be required.

Interested candidates should email resume and salary requirements to Lindsay Wood, Director of Education, at lwood@strand.org.